

GLOBAL AFRICANA FORUM

THURSDAY
NOVEMBER 3, 2016

CARPENTER HALL, ROOM 13

Convened by Naaborko Sackeyfio-Lenoch and Jesse Weaver Shipley

MORNING PANEL • 10:00 AM – NOON

AFRICANA MOBILITIES IN GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE

PANEL CHAIR: JESSE WEAVER SHIPLEY

EBONY E.A. COLETU

Assistant Professor of English, Pennsylvania State University

Chief Sam and the Origins of African American Migration to Ghana

ABOSEDE GEORGE

Associate Professor of History and Africana Studies, Barnard College

The Mothership and the Motherland:

The Challenge and Promise of Afro-futurism for Global Africana Studies

CARINA E. RAY

Associate Professor of African & Afro-American Studies, Brandeis University

Migrations, Now and Then: Routes, Reversals and Reasons

BENJAMIN TALTON

Associate Professor of African History & Director of Undergraduate Studies, Temple University

Afro-80s: Writing Black Radicalism in Africa and the U.S. Congress

AFTERNOON PANEL • 2:30 – 4:30 PM

ORDERING SPACE, ORDERING TIME: AFRICANA SUBJECTIVITIES

PANEL CHAIR: NAABORKO SACKEFIO-LENOCH

ELIZABETH GARLAND

Program Director, Verité

Modes of Engagement with Africa's Place within the Global Political-Economic Order

NELSON KASFIR

Professor of Government Emeritus, Dartmouth College

Constructing an African Concept of Civil Society

ZINE MAGUBANE

Associate Professor of Sociology, Boston College

Africa and the Social Sciences: Haiti, Africa, and the Making of Sociology

CHIKA UNIGWE

2016–2017 Bonderman Assistant Professor of Literary Arts, Brown University

Artistic Intervention: Crafting Stories of Travel and Transformation

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT:
AAAS@DARTMOUTH.EDU

Co-sponsored by the AAAS Program, the History Department, the Rockefeller Center, the Office of the Provost, and the Dean of Faculty Office